Slovo 21, z.s., most cordially invites you to a two-day international conference

“Quality education for everybody”

The international conference will be held on 2 - 3 June 2017 as a part of the 19th annual World Roma Festival Khamoro in Clam – Gallas Palace, Husova 20, Prague 1

The conference aims to provide space for a discussion on topical issues regarding the objectives (of education) and teaching trends in education.

The local and foreign experts, educational staff and other stakeholders will join in the discussion focused mainly on the topics of inclusive education, equal access to education and sharing best practices which can be an inspiration for education that in accordance with the Constitution of the Czech Republic and the Education Act results in personality development of each learner, respect to human rights and sophistication of the entire society.

The international conference will be held under the auspices of the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of the Czech Republic and the EU Commissioner Věra Jourová. The speakers will be the representatives of international organisations and institutions as well as Czech and foreign experts.

On Friday 2 June 2017 you can enjoy interactive presentations on educational visions of primary schools, educational methods and forms of inclusive education, role of the teaching assistant, and other aspects of inclusive education. Moreover, you will have an opportunity to take part in an international workshop entitled “Activities in inclusive classrooms”.

On Saturday 3 June 2017 renowned international experts from Canada, USA, Spain, Norway and Finland together with the representatives from the Ad-Hoc Committee of Expert on Roma issues and Roma Education Fund will share with you their experience with the implementation of inclusive education and specific examples of inclusive classrooms in practice from their respective countries.

The papers of Czech and foreign experts will be included in the electronic conference proceedings.
